

Scintel Technologies Shares the Holidays with Top Atlanta Companies

Fourth annual holiday party attracts business leaders from throughout the Atlanta community

Atlanta, GA - December 3, 2010 – Scintel Technologies Inc. recently hosted its fourth annual Holiday Party for clients, friends and family at the Sugarloaf Country Club. The holiday event featured fabulous food and magical entertainment, plus a gift drawing that included an autographed copy of the book Climb by Sandra Hofmann, president of Women in Technology and CIO-in-residence at the Advanced Technology Development Center.

“We were excited to see so many old friends and also welcome a number of new friends to our holiday tradition,” said T.K. Ganesh, president and CEO of Scintel. “2010 was another successful year for Scintel, and we enjoyed sharing that success with our clients as well as the Atlanta community.”

T.K. Ganesh and guests enjoy the Scintel fourth annual holiday party at Sugarloaf Country Club

Over 150 business leaders from a number of Atlanta companies attended the Scintel holiday party, including Assurant, Inc., The Coca Cola Company, FirstData, Intercontinental Hotels Group (IHG), Macy’s, McKesson, Nokia, Rollins, Inc., Southern Company, and SunTrust Banks.

Other organizations, including the American Diabetes Association, Technology Association of Georgia (TAG), and Women in Technology (WIT), were also well represented. In 2010, Scintel raised and donated more than $150,000 to support charitable and non-profit organizations in the Atlanta community.

About Scintel Technologies Inc.

Run by CIOs, Scintel partners with clients to understand their business environments, develop innovative applications and customized business processes, manage and enhance existing technology infrastructure and convert raw data into knowledge. Through a deep expertise in IT operations and a sustained focus on best practices, Scintel helps global clients engineer a strategic IT direction, and then applies the knowledge and the expertise to execute with precision. We solve real business problems by developing real business relationships. For more information, visit www.scintel.com.

###